VOICE CHOICES JANUARY 29–FEBRUARY 4, 2003

DANCE

PAT CATTERSON She's been making huge, ambitious modern and tap dances for more than 30 years, and she's one of the few downtown artists who makes sure everybody's having a good time. Her new, hour-long Crowd Pleaser, which explores the struggle for virtue in the contemporary political climate, features the eight Nine Lives dancers plus a corps of 30, and music by Philip Glass, Michael Gallasso, Louis Armstrong, and others. The theater is tiny. This should be one for the record books. SUNDAY AT 6 AND 8 AND MONDAY AT 7 AND 9, Construction Company, 10 East 18th Street, 212-924-7882. (Zimmer)
